

A fantastic product – These pencil cases are loaded with educational material - Information on how to form letters and multiplication tables. They are robust and soft so do not make any clattering sounds in the classroom. We find that schools purchase them in the hundreds. They are a wonderful way to give new learners a thrill when they start at school.

